If Hearts Were Audible

For where your treasure is, there will be your heart also (Matthew 6:21). If hearts could physically speak, many of them might say that they are not happy because of the strain people put on them unnecessarily. When Paul gave Timothy the charge, he did it from a sincere heart.

Paul being a man of wisdom imparted knowledge into Timothy to help prevent him from getting caught up in worldly desires. There are people who will say that they had no one to tell or help them make choices between Godly and worldly desires, therefore the lust of the eye tricked them into desiring worldly things.

Christians have an advantage. It is the advantage of having a heart and the Comforter that dwells within.

Listen to both and learn to live a life of contentment with the blessings God grants. A treasure is not worth having if it is not from God.

Talking Point(s)

Give a situation where you followed your heart and why?

Prayer: Father, I pray believers of Christ learn to appreciate the blessings that have come from You. I pray that everyone comes to realize man's greed is worthless, and all gifts from You are priceless. Thank you for all blessings. In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.
