ISAIAH 2:1-5 KJV

¹The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. ²And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. ³And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. ⁴And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. ⁵O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord.

The Kingdom of Peace

There are many who believe that humanity is currently living in the final days. Evidence for this can be seen in the frequent absence of peace and the ongoing presence of war across the world. These troubling circumstances can lead to feelings of discouragement and uncertainty about the future. However, it is important to remember that God remains in control, regardless of how things may seem. Isaiah 2:2 declares, in the last days that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow into it.

This Kingdom that the Lord will establish is destined to serve as the ultimate keeper of peace. Unlike the current world, which is often marked by conflict and unrest, this divine Kingdom will usher in an era where harmony prevails among all nations. God's authority will bring about justice and fairness, compelling people to live together without the threat of war or the need for weapons and defense. In this promised Kingdom, peace will not only be maintained but will flourish, reflecting God's sovereign rule and His desire for unity across humanity.

WHAT ARE SOME WAYS TO BRING PEACE TO YOUR LIFE AND OTHERS?

During this Lenten season, we are reminded that even in a troubled world, God is still calling us to walk in His peace. As we take time to reflect and draw closer to Him, we can live in ways that show His love to others. Each day is an opportunity to choose peace, practice patience, and trust God more. In doing so, we point others toward the Kingdom Isaiah describes, where true peace will one day reign.

Main Thought

And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

Closing Prayer

Father God, we humbly ask that You have Your way in bringing peace to our world. We recognize our deep need for Your sovereign power and will to unite all people and nations, shaping this world into what You have always intended it to be. Remain with us, Lord, and guide us as we seek to rebuild and restore our trust in one another. We ask all of this in Jesus' name. Amen!
